Knights of Columbus

Congratulations To Our Parishioners!!

Last weekend's podium at the Baker County Chamber of Commerce Banquet was dominated by parishioners from St. Francis deSales Parish. Although they have a plaque for their recognition it is a tribute to the Parish for the involvement these members have in the community.

Hal Huntington — "Legacy Man of the Year"

Jodie & Ted Hausotter — "Business of the Year"
Natural Structures

Secundino "JJ" Vela — "Youth Leader"

Michelle Paolletti — "Women of the Year"

Dave Banta — "Lifetime Sense of Duty"

Ladies!!

ARE YOU WONDERING WHAT TO GET YOUR HUSBAND or SON FOR VALENTINES??

A ticket to the Northwest Catholic Men's Conference, February 26-27th in Pendleton, Oregon?? It is a 'powerful feeling' to be with a bunch of men packed in a Conference Center, all praying the Our Father together.

Religious Education

Today's Gospel Jesus told everyone in his hometown about God's dream for all people, he also told them he was the chosen one. They were amazed but they did not believe him. The townspeople were also mad because they wanted Jesus to perform miracles for them to see. They did not have faith in Jesus, which was important. Then Jesus told them something they did not want to hear. He told them the Messiah was for everyone who believed, not just for the people of Israel. This also made the people angry. They wanted him to go away. Some people wanted to hurt him, but he got away from them.

Please remember and pray for the youth who will preparing for their first Reconciliation on February 3rd.
