Religious Education

During the month of March we celebrate St Joseph, in 1870 Pope Pius IX declared him the Patron Saint of the Catholic Church. Inspired by Pope Francis' apostolic letter Paterfamilias, the Knights of Columbus have provided a special Icon in honor of St. Joseph, which is now on display in the front of the church.

Just who is this man called Joseph? He is the silent figure of the New Testament and as a man who filled his obligations courageously and unquestioningly obeyed the commands of God. He provided as best he could for his family even though that meant Jesus would be born in a stable. He took his family (Mary and Jesus) and fled to safety of Egypt to flee the wrath of King Herod. He then returned to Nazareth to present his child, Jesus in the temple. Joseph was a father and protector in every sense of the word.

Tradition holds that St. Joseph died before Jesus began His public ministry. This belief is based on two points: First, he never appeared during the public ministry while Mary did, like at the wedding feast in Cana; and second, from the cross, Jesus entrusted the care of his mother to St. John the apostle, indicating Mary was a widow with no other children to care for her. It is believed he died in the presence of Mary and Jesus and therefore is the patron Saint of a holy death. (Catholic Answers)

On November 13, 1962 Pope John XXII ordered St. Joseph's Name inserted into the Eucharistic Prayer I, a proper recognition for the Guardian of the Universal Church.
