Religious Education

Reflection - December 28, 2014

In today's Gospel reading, Mary and Joseph presented Jesus to the Lord in the Temple when he was 40 days old. It was a way that Jewish parents consecrated their children to God and gave thanks and praise.

Two prophets, Simeon and Anna, were also at the Temple. As Jesus was brought into the Temple they both realized Jesus was the light of the nations.

A great big thank you to all who helped during the Children's Christmas Eve Mass. Thank you to Cindy Ratterman, Catalina Corona and Gerry Colton for directing the Music. Thank you to the youth who sang in the choir: Gracie Hardy, Katie Huntington, Victoria Rasmussen, Kade and Maddie Rudi, Gwen and Molly Rasmussen, Kate Norton, Colbi Bachman, Makenzie Flanagan and Yessenia and Angelina Sarmienta.

Also, thank you to all the youth who participated in the play, Bryson Bachman, Connor and Clark Norton, Chase Myatt, Cooper Colton, Fabian Arenas, Kate Norton, Gwen Rasmussen, Emese Marvin, Colbi Bachman and Maddie Rudi. It was a wonderful performance!

No RE classes or Choir on Wednesday, December 31st. Class will begin again on January 7, 2015.

Jesus is presented to the Lord in the Temple

When the day came to purify them according to the law of Moses, the couple brought him up to Jerusalem so that he could be presented to the Lord, for it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every first-born male shall be consecrated to the Lord." Luke 2:22-23
