Hungering To Give Back

This week, CRS Rice Bowl takes us to Laos, where Hongkham is using her love of cooking to provide for her family—and feed an entire school. How do we use our passions and gifts for the betterment of those we meet? Visit csrricebowl.org for more.

Rights and Responsibilities

As human beings, we have the right to live and grow in peace. Because we have that right, we have the responsibility to make sure others enjoy the same opportunity too.

- God makes a promise to Abraham and his descendants; God and Abraham have a responsibility to live up to that promise.

How do we uphold our responsibility to promises we have made to God and others?

- Paul reminds us that "our citizenship is in heaven." God loves all people—all citizens of that heavenly home—equally.

What kinds of rights and responsibilities does that citizenship imply?

- This week, CRS Rice Bowl features a woman from Laos who, recognizing the needs of her family and her own unique gifts, uses her love of cooking to feed her children—and an entire school.

How are we called to use our own unique gifts for the betterment of others?

RE Class on Wednesday, February 24th
7 to 8 p.m.

The advertisement for the Grande Ronde Symphony Orchestra features a central image of an open book with musical notes floating around it. The text "Grande Ronde Symphony Orchestra" is at the top, followed by "presents" and "Stories Through Music" in a stylized font. At the bottom, it says "March 2, 2016 7:30 p.m." and "Tickets Available at McKenzie Theatre, Lolo Hall Eastern Oregon University" and "Baker City Herald." The background is dark with a starry pattern.
