Reflection - February 8, 2015

In today's Gospel, Jesus was very busy. Jesus had been in the synagogue all day and had forced out many demons. He was a little tired because it took a lot of his energy. So Jesus and his followers James and John walked to Simon Peter and Andrews home. When they arrived at the house to rest, someone came and told Peter his mother-in-law was sick. Jesus went to her, took her hand and lifted her up and she was healed. After sunset many people brought the sick and those who had evil spirits right to Peter's door for Jesus to heal. Jesus healed them all. The next day Jesus went to a place where he could be alone and pray.

This week: Just like Jesus, sometimes you are very busy and need to slow down and listen to your family and friends. What are they feeling? Are they sad, can you cheer them up? Is someone lonely, can you include them in what you are doing? Pray to God everyday, he will help you even on your busiest day.
