

Altar Society News

Thank you to Circle 9 for organizing and helping with the funeral dinner after Colleen Atkinson's funeral.

Duties changed the 15th of January:

Circle 6	Funeral Dinners
Circle 7	Coffee Hour
Circle 9	No Duty
Circle 10	No Duty

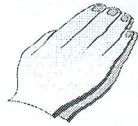

Many of our parishioners are going through tough times. Please keep them in your prayers. If you have a prayer chain request or would like to be a part of the prayer chain, please call Julie French at 541-523-4321 or Carole Watt at the parish office at 541-523-4521

Extra Dishes

We have extra dishes from different functions and from funeral dinners in the parish hall. If you are missing your favorite serving bowl you might want to look in the parish hall kitchen to see if it there!

A GOOD NIGHT PRAYER

As my head rests on my pillow,
let my soul rest in your mercy.
As my limbs relax on my mattress,
let my soul relax in your peace.
As my body finds warmth beneath the blankets,
let my soul find warmth in your love.
As my mind is filled with dreams,
let my soul be filled with visions of heaven. Amen

Reflection - January 18, 2015

In today's Gospel we heard that two of John's followers met Jesus after his baptism. We don't know for sure where the meeting took place. Maybe it was in Jesus' home or at the home of one of his relatives or perhaps at an inn or other public place. Jesus wanted some good people to follow him and to be his friends, so he could tell them about God and then they could help him spread his message. Jesus' first followers were Andrew and his brother Simon Peter. The brothers listened to what Jesus was teaching. They were so excited and they believed he was the Messiah. Andrew & Peter wanted to follow Jesus and tell everyone about him.

This week: Think of words or actions that you can do to bring the Good News of Jesus to others. Some ideas: help someone who is poor or sick or pray for someone who needs help.

Knights News

Thank you to everyone in the Hispanic community and fellow Knights, who helped take down the trees and nativity scene in the church after the Noon Mass on Sunday.
