Knights of Columbus

Since 1960, the Knights have celebrated a devotional tribute to Mary in the form of yearly pilgrimage of a Silver Rose. The Silver Rose honors Our Lady of the America's, and expresses the unity of our Order and its dedication to the sanctity of human life.
It provides us an occasion to strengthen the spirituality of our councils and build bridges with our parishes, particularly with the Hispanic community.

We are honored to have the rose with us this Saturday, June 25, 2016. The Rose's next stop is Ontario, Oregon, then to Idaho following the Spanish Mass.

Awesome!! A special thank you to the Knights of Columbuss for their donation of the much we appreciate their support.

Finally, we thank all of our parishioners for your support in making this a successful

On a second note: we still have 5 boxes of Girl Scout cookies — Samoas. They freeze well and will tide you over until next February. The price is $4 per box. Call
